PHOENIX SUNS

JERRY COLANGELO
General Manager

COLLEGE: University of Illinois '62
DEGREE: B.A. Physical Education
HIGH SCHOOL: Bloom Township High School, Chicago Hights, Illinois

SPORTS MANAGEMENT CAPSULE: The only General Manager the Suns have ever had. Colangelo took the helm on March 1, 1968, even before the Phoenix franchise had been dubbed "Suns". Then only 28 years of age, he was the youngest General Manager in professional sports.

Jerry is now in his eleventh year with the Suns, giving him an NBA tenancy second only to Red Auerbach of the Celtics. Under Colangelo's guidance the Suns have grown into one of the most stable franchises in the NBA with 6600 season tickets and record breaking attendance totals for three straight seasons.

Twice, Colangelo has stepped in to assume the Suns coaching reins in addition to his front office duties. During the 1969-70 season he replaced Johnny Kerr at midseason and guided the club to a playoff appearance in only their second year of existence. In 1972-73 Colangelo fired Butch van Breda Kolff after seven games and then went 35-40 the rest of the season, as Phoenix finished with a 38-44 mark.

Colangelo began his sports management career as the Head Scout and Director of Merchandising for the Chicago Bulls when they entered the NBA in 1966, and later became Executive Assistant to Dick Klein, President and General Manager of the Bulls. He now serves on several advisory organizations for the NBA, including Competition and Rules Committee.

Jerry was named NBA Executive of the Year by "The Sporting News" following the 1975-76 season.

COLLEGE CAPSULE: First enrolled at Kansas, where Wilt Chamberlain was expected to lead the Jayhawks to the national title. When Chamberlain decided to forgo his senior season to join the Harlem Globetrotters, Colangelo transferred to the University of Illinois, where he earned All-Big Ten honors, averaging 15 points per game. Captained the freshman team at Kansas and captained Illinois as a senior. Also played two years of baseball at Illinois.

HIGH SCHOOL CAPSULE: Played for Bloom Township High in Chicago Hights, Illinois averaging 15 points per game. Hit a high of 35 points to set a school record in 1957. With Colangelo at guard the team went 22-6 and 27-2 for a 48-8 overall record and two appearances in the Illinois State Championship Tournament. He was also the top pitcher on the school baseball team that also featured Jim Bouton, who later played for the NY Yankees. Upon graduation Jerry had 66 scholarship offers for college basketball and seven offers for pro baseball contracts. Earned All-State recognition in basketball as a senior.

PERSONAL CAPSULE: Since arriving in the Valley of the Sun, Jerry has been a tireless worker in service to the Phoenix community. He has served as President of the Big Brothers and is an active member of the Phoenix Thunderbirds, a group dedicated to the promotion of Phoenix through sports. In 1971 he was honored by the Phoenix Jaycees as one of the three Outstanding Young Men in Arizona.

In 1976 he was awarded the American Heritage Award by the Anti Defamation League of B'nai Brith, and was also named the Arizona Sports Personality of the Year by the Phoenix Press Box Association. He has also been cited by the City of Phoenix, the Boys Clubs of Phoenix, and the Boy Scouts for his many contributions to the community.

An avid tennis player, Jerry and his wife, Joan, live in north central Phoenix with their three children, Kathy (17), Kristen (15) and Bryan (13). Another child is due in the fall of 1978. Jerry was born 11/20/39 in the old Italian neighborhood they call "Hungry Hill" in Chicago Heights.

JOHN MacLEOD
Head Coach

COLLEGE: Bellarmine (Kentucky) '59
DEGREE: B.A., MA. Physical Education and History from Indiana State
HIGH SCHOOL: Providence - Clarkdale, Indiana

PRO COACHING CAPSULE: Signed as the fifth Head Coach of the Suns on March 30, 1973. Now in his sixth season as the Suns head man. Has strong defense philosophy and a flair for the fast break. Suns went 30-52 in Mac's first year (73-74), followed that with a 32-50 mark in 1974-75. Made the NBA playoffs in 75-76 on the strength of a 42-40 regular season mark and went 10-9 in post season action against Seattle, Golden State and Boston. In 76-77 injuries crippled the Suns and the record fell off to 34-48, but last year the club bounced back to the playoffs with a 49-33 record, tying the best mark in Suns history. MacLeod and Portland's Jack Ramsey were tied for fourth in Coach of the Year balloting last season.

COLLEGE COACHING CAPSULE: Came to Oklahoma as freshman coach in 1966 and forged a 7-1 mark, the best frosh record in the school's history and succeeded Bob Stevens as head coach the following year. Oklahoma cage fortunes were at a low ebb, but MacLeod turned the program around going 13-13, 7-19, 19-9, 19-8, 14-12 and 18-8 during his six seasons there. Under MacLeod the Sooners made two trips to the National Invitation Tournament and compiled a 90-69 overall record. Three of MacLeod's former Oklahoma players are now in the NBA, Clifford Ray of the Warriors, and Alvan Adams and Gar Heard of the Suns.

HIGH SCHOOL COACHING CAPSULE: At Smithville High School in Indiana in 1963-64, a rural community about eight miles southeast of Bloomington, MacLeod was Athletic Director, coach in basketball, baseball and cross country. The school's enrollment was 135 and the gym's capacity was 3,800! An assistant at Louisville DeSales High and Indianapolis Cathedral, MacLeod's only job as a prep head coach was at Smithville.

ATHLETIC BACKGROUND: MacLeod won seven high school letters (three each in basketball and football, and another in cross-country at Providence High School in Clarksdale, Indiana). Established a Bellarmine College record by earning 10 varsity monograms. In college basketball MacLeod was a good passer and defensive player, but a non-starter. At one time was sparring partner for boxer Jimmy Ellis. Was voted Most Outstanding Player in a Louisville amateur baseball league in 1961, and was an outfielder-catcher with a powerful arm and great potential, but damaged the arm throwing baseballs at milk bottles at an Altoona, Pa. amusement park. Still jogs daily to keep in condition.

PERSONAL CAPSULE: Married to the former Carol McGroder, a former TV actress, who is now active in Phoenix theatre groups. MacLeod was born 10/3/37 in New Albany, Indiana. Annually sponsors a golf tournament in Phoenix to benefit local charities. Lefthanded. The MacLeods have two children, Kathleen Ann (3½) and Matthew Patrick (1).

PLAYERS

ALVAN ADAMS 33

Forward-Center

Ht.: 6-9 Wt.: 212 Years Pro: 3

COLLEGE: Oklahoma '75

HOW ACQUIRED: 1975 Draft, First Round, 4th Overall Pick

PLAYING STYLE: Alvan's strengths are his quickness, basketball sense and an uncanny passing ability. He's the triggerman in the Suns center-oriented high post offense and complements his passing with a good shooting touch around the key. Can play forward or center, but the Suns prefer him in the post offensively. Suns are counting on Adams to hit the boards, be more aggressive defensively and stay injury-free.

PRO CAPSULE: Tonsilitis last season and ankle problems during 1976-77 kept Alvan from hitting the stride that won him the Rookie of the Year Award three years ago. Started only 49 games last year, but still scored over 1,000 points for the third straight season. Picked in the 1975 Draft after David Thompson, David Meyers and Marvin Webster. Was the only rookie selected to the 1975 NBA All-Stars and was the first Sun to win the NBA Rookie of the Year Award (1976). In the 1976 Playoff finals against the Celtics, Adams led all scorers with 138 points, including a game high of 33. Applied for "hardship" status in 1974 Draft, but when it appeared the Suns couldn't get him, pulled out of the draft and returned to Oklahoma for his junior year. Was again a "hardship" in the 1975 Draft and the Suns grabbed him.

COLLEGE CAPSULE: As a "Sooner," Alvan was Big Eight Conference Player of the Year three straight seasons, M.V.P. in the Big Eight Tournament three straight years and was named All-Big Eight in each of his three college seasons. Adams holds Oklahoma records for most points in a game (43), most rebounds in a game (28), highest career scoring average (23.4), highest career rebounding average (12.8), highest single season scoring average (26.5 as a junior) and highest single season rebounding average (13.3 as a junior). Coached by John MacLeod as a freshman and Joe Ramsey as a sophomore and junior. Toured China with U.S.A. team and played in World University Games in Moscow. Deans List Student in pre-med studies.

HIGH SCHOOL CAPSULE: Putnam City High School was undefeated Oklahoma State Champion in 1971-72 with Adams at center. Compiled a 67-11 record during Adams' three years as a starter. Alvan was named Oklahoma High School Player of the Year in 1972, as well as All-America. Member of state and national scholastic honor societies. Voted Most Likely to Succeed by classmates. Valedictorian of his graduating class.

PERSONAL CAPSULE: Low-key personality. Former Eagle Scout. Much has been written about Alvan's voracious appetite. Married his college sweetheart, Sara Dennstet in August of 1975. Lives in a 60-year old Spanish home in west-central Phoenix. Father, Paul Adams, is a geologist. Born in Lawrence, Kansas 7/19/54. Owns Great Dane named "Blue". Hopes to someday pursue medical career. Nicknamed "Double A" or "The Oklahoma Kid".

MIKE BRATZ 23

Guard

Ht.: 6-2 Wt.: 186 Years Pro: 1

COLLEGE: Stanford '77

HOW ACQUIRED: 1977 Draft, 3rd Round, 66th Overall Pick

PLAYING STYLE: A hardnosed, intelligent floor leader who does not back down from NBA guards of reputation. Has the tools to be a good defensive player. Plays within the MacLeod system and competes every night. A much better perimeter shooter than last year's .403 mark would indicate. A good fundamental passer and ballhandler, Mike assumes the lead guard role when he's in the game.

PRO CAPSULE: Saw plenty of action as a rookie last season, appearing in 80 games and averaging 11.7 minutes. Took a regular turn in the Suns guard rotation and averaged 4.7 points per game. Enjoyed a fine season in the Southern California Summer League averaging 11.8 points per game, while shooting .500 from the field.

COLLEGE CAPSULE: Academic All-America Second Team and All-PAC 8 conference 1st Team as a senior. Mike paced the "Cardinals" in assists (113), steals and FT% (.814). He ended his college career as Stanford's all-time assist leader and the No. 5 single season scorer with a 19.6 average. Hit career high of 30 vs. Santa Clara as a junior. Scored record 25 points in the first half of a game against Hawaii as a senior. Also holds single game assist record at Stanford (10). His Stanford coach was Dick DiBiaso.

Transferred to Stanford after starring on 1974 California Junior College Championship team from Allan Hancock College coached by Bob McCutcheon. Was an All-League shortstop in junior college before an elbow injury forced him to devote his full attention to basketball.

An Economics major at Stanford and member of the Delta Tau fraternity, Mike received a B.A. degree last spring.

HIGH SCHOOL CAPSULE: Lettered twice in both basketball and baseball at Lompoc High School in Lompoc, California, just north of Santa Barbara. Averaged 15 points per game as a junior, 18 per game as a senior. Named All-C.I.F. Lompoc High School won the Northern League Championship and Mike was the league M.V.P. as a senior. High game in high school was 32 points.

DON BUSE 10

Guard

Ht.: 6-4 Wt.: 192 Years Pro: 6

COLLEGE: Evansville U. '72

HOW ACQUIRED: Trade from Indiana 9/6/77 for Ricky Sobers

PLAYING STYLE: The perfect lead guard, totally unselfish and strong fundamentally. A competitor with good instincts defensively. Should show more initiative looking to the hoop and boost his scoring to 10 or 12 points per game. Does not try to complicate the offense, and keeps the simple play simple. Protects the ball well, and always keeps the offense moving. Probably the most underrated guard in basketball today. Commits only one turnover for every 20 minutes of playing time, one of the lowest figures in the NBA and amazing stats for a ballhandling guard.

PRO CAPSULE: Last season was third in the league in steals and second on the club in assists with 4.8 per game. Was the only Sun to start all 82 games last year. Led the NBA in both assists and steals during 1976-77. He was named first team guard on the NBA All-Defensive Team by a vote of NBA coaches, for the last two straight years.

Was a third round pick of the Suns in 1972, the 34th player picked in the NBA draft, and was also tabbed by the Virginia Squires, who were then coached by Al Bianchi. Virginia dealt Buse's rights to Indiana for cash and Don signed with the Pacers. Buse set all-time ABA single season records for assists (689) and steals (346) and in 1975-76 was named to the All-ABA second team.

COLLEGE CAPSULE: At Evansville University, Buse averaged 16.1 points as a sophomore, 18.2 as a junior, and 16.7 as a senior. Also averaged six assists per game during his career with the "Purple Aces". Finished No. 4 on the Aces All-Time scoring list with 1426 points just ahead of Jerry Sloan. Buse was named Small College All-America in 1972 and led Evansville to the NCAA Division II National Championship in 1971, winning the M.V.P. Award of the Championship Tournament. Coached by Arad McCutchan, Buse was named Outstanding College Player of the Year in 1971 in NCAA Division II. Was two time M.V.P. in the Indiana Collegiate Conference. Hit high of 34 points. A Physical Education major. John MacLeod had tried to recruit him for the Oklahoma Sooners, but Buse decided to stay in his home state of Indiana.

HIGH SCHOOL CAPSULE: Attended Holland High School in Holland, Indiana, just 40 miles northeast of Evansville. Averaged 22 points per game as a senior, hitting a high of 48. Holland High won sectional titles in Buse's junior and senior seasons. Named to the Indiana All-Stars following his senior year. Coached by Woody Neel.

PERSONAL CAPSULE: A bachelor, Don enjoys hunting and fishing. Nicknamed "Boo". Born 8/10/50 in Huntingburg, Indiana. Phoenix is the first team Buse has played for on a high school, collegiate, or pro level outside of the state of Indiana. Pronounces last name "Boo-zee".

Forward

Ht.: 6-7 Wt.: 218 Years Pro: R

COLLEGE: Syracuse '78

HOW ACQUIRED: 1978 Draft, 1st Round, 19th Overall Pick

PLAYING STYLE: Has the potential to be a solid NBA performer. Give him an inch and he'll take it to the hoop, and as a result he'll spend a lot of time at the free throw line. Moves very well without the ball and is an unselfish team player who should shine in the MacLeod system. Fundamentally sound on defense, he owns a tough inside game on offense and is a better than average shooter from the perimeter. Knows the game and has great court sense. Look for him to be filling in behind Walter Davis at the small forward slot and occasionally shifting to the strong side in certain matchup situations. A lefthander, has been described as a Kevin Grevey-type of player.

PRO CAPSULE: Coaches liked his performances in the Suns Rookie Camp in late June and in the Southern California Pro Basketball Summer League. In the summer league Byrnes averaged 15.5 points, 5.0 rebounds and shot .581 FG% and .780 FT%. Signed a multi-year contract with the Suns on June 26.

HOW ACQUIRED: 1977 Draft, 1st Round, 5th Overall Pick

PLAYING STYLE: The consummate small forward, Davis plays the game with grace and style. Owns a textbook-perfect jump shot accurate from 20 feet. Can go to the hoop or pull up for the jump shot off the fast break. Hardworking and extremely coachable, Davis wants to improve his defense and rebounding. Plays with the maturity of a five-year veteran.

PRO CAPSULE: Landslide winner in balloting for Rookie of the Year last year, was the only rookie named Second Team All-NBA and earned a spot on the West All-Star Squad for the All-Star Classic in Atlanta. BAYARD FORREST 35

Forward-Center

Ht.: 6-10 Wt.: 235 Years Pro: 1
COLLEGE: Grand Canyon '76
HOW ACQUIRED: Rights obtained from Seattle for a second round pick in 1979 and undisclosed cash 3/18/77

PLAYING STYLE: Definitely a pro passer with good jumping ability and an improving outlet pass. Outside shot is somewhat questionable but he plays within his range. Blocking out got better and better as the season progressed last year. An intelligent player who works exceptionally hard. Needs only to learn to use his size and strength more aggressively inside. Great instinct and timing on the offensive boards. One of the Suns more powerful dunk shot artists. Good speed for his size, gets out and runs on the break. Will continue to improve with more playing time. Working to improve his poor free throw shooting last season.

PRO CAPSULE: The Suns drafted Bayard in the third round of the 1975 Draft as a junior "hardship", but Forrest elected to return to Grand Canyon for his senior season. He was tabbed in the second round of the 1976 Draft by the Seattle SuperSonics, but did not sign, and played 1976-77 for the amateur Athletes in Action program. The Sonics dealt his rights to the Suns in March of 1977.

When Alvan Adams was out with tonsilitis last year, Bayard teamed with Dennis Awtrey at center to keep the Suns steamrolling. Could see more time this season at the strong forward position. Averaged 13.9 minutes, 3.9 rebounds and 4.2 points in 64 appearances last year.

COLLEGE CAPSULE: A four year starter at Grand Canyon College in Phoenix, Bayard averaged 18 points per game over his college carreer as the "Antelopes" forged an impressive 104-18 record in N.A.I.A. play.

Forrest was named First Team N.A.I.A. in 1974, 1975 and 1976. He was named All-America and M.V.P. of the 1975 N.A.I.A. National Tournament in Kansas City, leading Grand Canyon to a 30-3 mark and the National Championship. Coached by Ben Lindsey, Bayard was a Business Administration major.

For the Athletes in Action program in 1976-77, Bayard led the team in scoring with a 13.8 points per game mark, and shot .500 from the field and .750 from the free throw line. He also averaged 8.3 rebounds and two assists per game as the A.I.A. compiled a 36-7 record against some of the top college teams in the country, including wins over Nevada-Las Vegas, San Francisco and Maryland.

HIGH SCHOOL CAPSULE: Attended Prescott (Arizona) High School as a sophomore averaging 15 points and 10 rebounds per game. Family moved to Bandon, Oregon, where as a junior and senior, Bayard averaged 25 points and 20 rebounds as Bandon High School compiled a 60-5 mark. Bandon finished 3rd in the state both seasons under Coach Butch Neff.

PERSONAL CAPSULE: Brothers Truitt (24) and Jon (21) both played basketball at Grand Canyon College, as did Bayard's father, Nelson Forrest, in the 1950's. Bayard also has a sister, Dorothy Kay (20). Family resides in Phoenix. Bayard writes left-handed, but shoots right-handed. An avid hunter and outdoorsman. Nicknamed "Bay". Bayard and his wife, Peggy, have a daughter, Stephanie (1). Bayard was born 7/8/54 in San Jose, California.

GARFIELD HEARD 24

Forward

Ht.: 6-6 Wt.: 225 Years Pro: 8

COLLEGE: Oklahoma '70

HOW ACQUIRED: Trade from Buffalo with future Draft Choice 2/1/76 for John Shumate

PLAYING STYLE: Assets are eight years experience in the NBA wars, good instincts defensively, good timing on the boards and an uncanny shot blocking ability because of his long reach. Only 6-6, Gar is generally matched up against much bigger NBA "strong" forwards. His "rainbow" shot runs hot and cold but Gar can be effective offensively with his inside game.

PRO CAPSULE: Has led the Suns in rebounding for the past two seasons, 9.6 per game in 76-77 and 8.2 per game last year. Also led the team last year in blocked shots (1.26 per game).

"Gar" came into the NBA as a third round pick of the Sonics in 1970. He was traded in 1972 to Chicago for Kennedy McIntosh. The following year the Bulls dealt him to Buffalo for John Hummer and draft choices. Heard came to the Suns on the eve of the 1976 All-Star Game in Philadelphia in exchange for John Shumate.

Earned a niche in NBA history by hitting an 18' jumper at the buzzer that sent the Suns and Celtics into triple overtime in Game Five of the 1976 Championship series.

COLLEGE CAPSULE: Played for Suns Coach John MacLeod at Oklahoma 1966 through 1970. Set Oklahoma rebounding records later broken by Alvan Adams. Hit high of 39 points vs. Xavier in 1970. Led the "Sooners" in scoring that year with 21.7 per game. Averaged 15.7 points for his Oklahoma career. Slowed by knee injury as a junior. Led the club in rebounding three years and finished with a 10.6 career average. Shot .466 FG% and .600 FT%. Earned All-Big Eight honors as a senior. Special Education major.

HIGH SCHOOL CAPSULE: At Ethel Kight High School in LaGrange, Georgia, Gar won All-State honors as a senior averaging 29 points and 25 rebounds per game. Had a single game high of 45 points. Team won District Championships in both Gar's junior and senior seasons going 24-1 and 24-3.

PERSONAL CAPSULE: Married airline stewardess Kathy Cline in summer of 1976. The Heards have one daughter, Yaasmeen Shamal born last January 12. Runs airport transportation business in Atlanta with Herm Gilliam. Splits his off season between Phoenix and Atlanta. Enjoys tennis and golf. Music buff, especially partial to jazz. Born 5/3/48 in Hogansville, Georgia.

RON LEE 30

Guard

Ht.: 6-4 Wt.: 204 Years Pro: 2

COLLEGE: University of Oregon '76

HOW ACQUIRED: 1976 Draft, 1st Round, 10th Overall Pick

PLAYING STYLE: Has the potential to become the best defensive guard in the NBA. He is strong and quick with great endurance. Plays with energy, enthusiasm and a reckless abandon that sometimes gets him in foul trouble but always makes things happen. His hands are quicker than the eye. Outside shot was questionable when he first came into the league, but Ronnie has improved it with better shot selection. Should reduce turnovers by playing more under control. No one will ever question his desire or hustle. An extraordinary leaper, Ronnie blocked several breakaway layups last season and has an electrifying assortment of slam dunks.

PRO CAPSULE: Led the NBA in steals last season with 2.74 thefts per game, a figure made more impressive by the fact that Lee started only two games all season and averaged only 23.5 minutes per game. Was named to the NBA All-Rookie Team at the end of his first year in 1976-77. Has scored in double figures in both of his years with the Suns. Has yet to miss a game with the Suns, 166 in a row including playoffs.

COLLEGE CAPSULE: PAC 8 Player of the Year in 1976. The only player ever to be named to the All-PAC 8 Team four straight seasons. Oregon's M.V.P. for four consecutive years and the M.V.P. in the 1975 National Invitation Tournament at Madison Square Garden. Set Oregon career records for scoring (2,085), assists (572), field goals (838) and free throws (409). College high of 41 came against Seattle University as a senior. "Ducks" went 71-41 with Lee in the backcourt. Averaged just over 18 points in each of his four varsity seasons and for his career shot .418 FG%, .738 FT% and had 5.2 rebounds per game. His Oregon teams were dubbed the "Kamakazie Kids". Passed up chance for 1976 Olympics in basketball to graduate on schedule from Oregon.

HIGH SCHOOL CAPSULE: Lettered in basketball and threw the javelin 234 feet setting a New England record. Played goalie and was M.V.P. in soccer. Attended suburban Lexington High School near Boston as part of the Metco busing program. Was coached there by the defense oriented Rollie Massimino who later became head coach at Villanova. Lee led Lexington to a 51-0 record and two consecutive state championships. He averaged 24 points per game.

PERSONAL CAPSULE: Maintains a hyperactive pace both on and off the court. Father is a Boston motorcycle policeman. His brother, Russell, 6'5", starred at Marshall University and was a first round pick of the Milwaukee Bucks in 1972. Russell played for the Bucks and later the New Orleans Jazz, but is now out of basketball. As a kid, Ron's favorite players were Sam Jones and Tom Sanders of the Celtics, and Jerry West of the Lakers. Following his senior year at Oregon, Ron was also drafted by the San Diego Chargers of the NFL and the Portland Timbers of the North American Soccer League. YEAR BY YEAR WITH THE SUNS

1968-69 — On January 22, 1968 the N.B.A. Board of Governors granted a franchise to the city of Phoenix. On April 25, 1968, the name "SUNS" was selected in a contest sponsored by The Arizona Republic. The winning entry was submitted by Mrs. Selinda King of Phoenix. Suns suffered through their first season of existence with a 16-66 record. Gail Goodrich led in scoring with 1,931 points and a 23.8 average. Dick Van Arsdale averaged 21.0. Johnny Kerr was the coach. Goodrich and Van Arsdale each appeared in the NBA All-Star game at Baltimore.

1969-70 — Connie Hawkins joined the scene from the ABA and led the Suns in scoring with a 24.6 average, earning a starting berth in the All-Star Game and gaining first team All-Pro honors. Van Arsdale was also named to the All-Star team in January. Midway through the season, Johnny Kerr stepped down as coach and general manager Jerry Colangelo took over. Colangelo guided the club into the playoffs and extended Los Angeles to seven games before being eliminated.

1970-71 — Under new coach Cotton Fitzsimmons, Phoenix posted the fourth best record in the NBA, but failed to make the playoffs, finishing third behind Milwaukee and Chicago. Van Arsdale led the club in scoring with a 21.9 average and Paul Silas led in rebounding for the second straight season. Van Arsdale and Hawkins were again named to the All-Star team.

1971-72 — Suns posted a club record 49-33 won-lost mark but failed to make the playoffs finishing behind Milwaukee and Chicago in the Midwest Division. Suns record was sixth best in the entire NBA. Connie Hawkins led club in scoring with 21.0 average and Paul Silas led in rebounding and assists. Hawkins and Silas were named to the West team for the All-Star Game. Fitzsimmons was the coach.

1972-73 — Suns fell off to a 38-44 mark and finished third in the Pacific Division. Charlie Scott led the club in scoring with a record 25.3 average and along with Connie Hawkins was named to the Western Conference All-Star Team. Seven games into the season, Bill van Breda Kolff was fired as coach and Jerry Colangelo assumed the duties for the remainder of the season.

1973-74 — John MacLeod took the Suns coaching reins from Colangelo. Early in the season Connie Hawkins was traded to Los Angeles for Keith Erickson, who by season's end was named the Suns Most Outstanding Player. Charlie Scott led the club in scoring average with 25.4 points per game but missed the final 29 games with a broken arm. The Suns finished fourth in the Pacific Division with a 30-52 mark. Van Arsdale led the club in point production with 1389 and shooting percentage (.500) and Scott was the lone Suns All-Star representative.

1974-75 — The season was preceded by one of the largest transactions in Suns history with center Neal Walk and a second round draft pick going to New Orleans in exchange for Curtis Perry, Dennis Awtrey, Nate Hawthorne and a first round pick in 1976. Perry had his best season as a pro averaging 12 points and 12 rebounds per game winning both the Suns' Most Outstanding and Most Popular Player Awards. In late February, the Suns had a shot in the NBA playoffs, but injuries to Van Arsdale and Erickson knocked them from contention. The Suns finished fourth in the Pacific Division with a 32-50 mark. Charlie Scott was the Suns only All-Star representative in the first NBA All-Star Game played in Phoenix. Scott finished the season as the club's leading scorer with 24.3 points per game. Perry was listed as the #10 rebounder in the NBA.

1975-76 — The most exciting season in Suns history began with the Suns flying out of the gate with a 14-9 start, their best ever. A string of injuries and a puzzling mid-season slump had the Suns winning only 4 of their next 22 but after the All-Star break the Suns caught fire going 24-13 and storming into the playoffs against the Seattle SuperSonics. There were several reasons for the Suns turnaround: a Charlie Scott for Paul Westphal trade in the off-season, the drafting of Alvan Adams and Ricky Sobers, the acquisition of Al Bianchi as assistant coach and the mid-season trade that sent John Shumate to Buffalo and brought Garfield Heard to Phoenix. Phoenix eliminated the Sonics 4-2, then went on to upset the World Champion Golden State Warriors 4-3 and gain the N.B.A. finals against the Boston Celtics. The Suns lost the first two games in Boston but came back to knot the series with a pair of victories in Phoenix. Game five will go down in basketball history as the most exciting game ever played. A triple overtime contest that eluded the Suns by a few precious seconds and cost them the World Championship. Boston won the series 4-2. Rookie Alvan Adams was named the N.B.A. Rookie of the Year and became only the tenth first year player to be named to the mid-season All-Star Game. General Manager Jerry Colangelo was named Executive of the Year by The Sporting News.

1976-77 — Tom and Dick Van Arsdale were playing on the same team for the first time as pros and the Suns entered the year with the highest of expectations, then watched helplessly as injuries eventually claimed the entire starting front line. Forwards Gar Heard and Curtis Perry each missed nearly half the season and center Alvan Adams was injured in the fourth game of the season and didn't regain top form until February. The Suns had all players healthy and available for duty for only six games the entire season. The Suns finished 34-48, 5th in the Pacific Division. Paul Westphal led the club in scoring (21.3) for the second straight season and was named to the All-N.B.A. Team for the first time in his career. Rookie Ron Lee was named to the N.B.A. All Rookie Team and the Suns set a new home attendance mark, averaging over 10,000 fans per game. Westphal was voted to the starting unit of the West squad at the N.B.A. All-Star Game in Milwaukee, scored 20 points and nearly captured the game's M.V.P. award. As a team the Suns set a new assist record 2100 breaking the record they set in 1975-76. At the conclusion of the season, both Tom and Dick Van Arsdale retired from the N.B.A.

1977-78 — The Suns announced a block-buster trade just before the opening of the season . . . Ricky Sobers to Indiana for guard Don Buse, an All-Star and the NBA leader in both assists and steals. With Buse and rookie Walter Davis new faces in the starting line-up, the Suns bolted from the gate, were 19-11 by Christmas and 34-16 by the February All-Star break. They finished with a 49-33 record, fourth best in basketball, but were second in the Pacific Division behind the formidable Portland Trail Blazers. It was a record year for the Suns in many ways. A franchise record was set for attendance (11,464 per game) and on the court the Suns set NBA records for team steals in a season (1059) as well as tying the league mark for assists (2338). Walter Davis and Paul Westphal were among the league's top ten scorers with better than 20 points per game, both were named Second All-NBA and both participated for the West at the All-Star Game in Atlanta, Westphal as a starter. Davis went on to become the league's Rookie of the Year and Don Buse was named to the NBA All-Defensive team. Ron Lee led the league in steals with 2.7 thefts per game. At the All-Star break the Suns lost forward Curtis Perry with back problems and went the rest of the season with five rookies on the roster, more than any other NBA club. In the Qualifying (Best of Three) Round in the NBA Playoffs the Suns were surprised in two straight games by the Milwaukee Bucks.
